GOODFELLOWS RUSH TO SPREAD CHEER

will bring to the faces of the people he calls upon. Imagine the gladness that a few packages of candy and nuts and toys, or a bundle of clothing, or a turkey and chicken and trimmings would stir up in families such as this:

A Letter From Evelyn.

This letter is from Evelyn, eleven years old, and this is what she says: "I am writing to you to see if you can give us anything for Christmas. I have two sisters; one is eleven months old and the other is ten years old. Dear Good Fellow, my father has been sick and has just gone back to work. There won't be any Christmas unless some Good Fellow will send Santa Claus down. Anything is acceptable that you can give."

And, Good Fellows, are going to take Santa Claus to that home. The Y. B. B. class of the Brethren Church has been assigned to that case, and there will be cheer in that home. There will also be cheer in fifteen homes assigned today to the Allotment Division of the Navy Department and to numerous others that Good Fellows, individuals and clubs, have taken under their wings, but there are dozens for whom no Good Fellows have responded.

Sickness and Death.

For instance, there is a family living in the southwest, within four blocks of a street where Christmas shoppers are thronging. Sickness and death have been the lot of that home this year, and the savings of years went for medicine and doctors. They miss the kind father who died

GOOD FELLOWS!

Here's a form for you to fill out. It will aid you in stating your plans for helping the poor kids and others.

If you will be a Good Fellow on Christmas to some family of poor children in Washington please fill out the attached blank and send it to "The Times," Good Fellow Department.

I will be a good fellow to persons or families (as many as you wish). Please give me names of persons in (State what section of city you prefer to have assigned to you.)

this year. The little girl is ill and the mother must be constantly at her bedside. That is a case for Good Fellows.

On Ninth street northwest there is a family that would be glad to get almost anything a Good Fellow would take them. The widowed mother is attempting to care for eight children. It is a struggle that should be relieved by cheer on at least one day of the year—Christmas.

There are poor little duffers all over Washington who are awaiting a Good Fellow visit. It is your opportunity to chirp up individuals who need chirping up.

EXPAND TRADE POLICY, SAYS SEC. ALEXANDER

United States Should Establish New Shipping Lines To Countries Which Lack Vessels.

That the United States should expand its foreign trade policy and reach out for those countries which have no established lines of ships by the use of Shipping Board vessels, is the opinion of Joshua W. Alexander, who yesterday actively entered upon his duties as Secretary of Commerce. "The Shipping Board is in a position to do this," he said, "inasmuch as there are a large number of ships that must be operated until they are sold to private concerns."

The new Secretary is also in favor of the concentration of the various other agencies of the Government which have to do with the development of our foreign trade under the Department of Commerce, and urges greater co-ordination between these agencies and his department.

"By doing this," he declared, "it would save not only a great deal of money to the Government, but a large duplication of work."

RED CROSS MAN BEATEN BY RUMANIAN SOLDIERS

U. S. Courier Was Brutally Attacked When He Protested Seizure of Mail Sacks.

PARIS, Dec. 18.—A brutal assault on Lord R. Davis, an American Red Cross courier, by Rumanian soldiers at the railroad station of Temesvara is the subject of strong representations by the American legation at Bucharest. It was learned at the American Red Cross headquarters here.

The Rumanians, it is said, seized American mail sacks at Temesvara, and when Davis protested a Rumanian corporal hit him in the face with the butt of a rifle, whereupon Davis was roughly handled by other Rumanian soldiers and finally thrown into jail. He was later released but is said to have been seriously hurt.

DELAY DEMAND FOR KAISER.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The note which the allies are drafting, demanding the extradition of the ex-Kaiser from Holland, is not to be presented until after the final ratification of the peace treaty, it was learned today. This probably will not take place for another week.

ADVERTISEMENTCatarrh of the Stomach And Roaring in the Head Stopped by Using Nu-Vim

A Mr. H. R. Watson, of Camden, N. J., a well-known ship builder, said: "For many years I had been suffering with catarrh of the stomach, and an awful roaring in the head, with a bad liver, and constipation, and for weeks I could not get a good night's sleep, and I was uncomfortable and nervous during the day, and I heard about Nu-Vim being so good, and on my first bottle I found relief, and after using 4 bottles, all my troubles have entirely disappeared. I can't say too much for Nu-Vim. It is a wonderful tonic, and I willingly recommend it. As one druggist said: Nu-Vim is the best tasting and it seems to do the most good to our patrons than anything we have ever sold, and we sell more of Nu-Vim than all other tonics combined, and that store carried over $50,000 worth of goods, and many druggists and clerks in the store take Nu-Vim, and they say it strengthens and rests them up by producing good rich blood. All these points count to customers, as they don't care to throw their money away on a useless medicine, and the druggists know that when they get Nu-Vim, their money is well spent. Try it, only $1.00, and if you can't get it at your druggists, write and send $1.00 to the Nu-Vim Drug Co., Columbus, Ohio, and they will send one large bottle anywhere prepaid. On sale at the People's seven drug stores, and all druggists."
